Shenyang Imperial Palace Museum

The Shenyang Imperial Palace, originally built and used as a royal residence during the early Qing Dynasty, was constructed in 1625. It features over 100 architectural structures, including palaces, pavilions, towers, and halls, with more than 500 rooms in total. The museum houses a collection of over 100,000 cultural relics, offering significant historical and artistic value while showcasing its unique characteristics.

Changchun Film Studio Site Museum

The Changchun Film Studio Site Museum chronicles the inception, development, prosperity, and transformations of the Changchun Film Studio, serving as a witness to the history of New China's cinema. It was here that the first multi-episode news documentary, the first puppet film, the first science education film, the first animated film, the first short story film, the first feature-length film, and the first dubbed film of New China were produced.

Dongbei Village Cultural Experience

Discover the flavors of Northeast China with a hands-on experience: make your own pancake, enjoy candied hawthorn skewers, and try your hand at making dumplings. Dress in colorful traditional attire to write a couplet and create paper-cut window decorations. Immerse yourself in the festive atmosphere of a Northeast marketplace and feel the spirit of the Lunar New Year.

Harbin Polarland Little Explorer Learning

The Harbin Polarland is a large indoor polar-themed park centered around the Arctic and Antarctic. Visitors can observe marine life from both polar regions and participate in engaging activities such as an Arctic exploration course and an immersive Arctic research station experience. Enjoy a polar park lunch and take part in highlights like a park parade, close encounters with polar bears, Arctic foxes, penguins. Don't miss the breathtaking underwater beluga whale performance and spectacular shows featuring a variety of polar marine creatures, animals, and talented Russian performers. Guests can also enjoy feeding adorable squirrel monkeys and seals.

Ice and Snow World + Snow Games + Skiing

Harbin Ice and Snow World showcases a wonderland of dazzling ice sculptures and snow-covered landscapes. Highlights include thrilling giant ice slides, mesmerizing light displays, and vibrant snow-themed evening performances, all celebrating Harbin's rich ice and snow culture.

Experience the charm of Northeast China's traditional horse-drawn sled transportation and enjoy various snow activities. For adventure seekers, the Yabuli skiing adventure offers an exhilarating rush of speed and excitement.
