Lake Nakuru National Park

A UNESCO World Heritage site, with over 400 bird species, enjoy a wide variety of wildlife and especially the Flamingoes which will make the lake look pink and this park itself is a premium game park and is also one of the most visited parks in Kenya.

Maasai Mara National Reserve

One of Africa's greatest wildlife reserve. Together with the Serengeti National Park in Tanzania it forms Africa's most diverse, incredible and most spectacular eco-systems and possibly the world's top safari big game viewing eco-system.

Lake Manyara National Park

Part of the larger Lake Manyara Biosphere Reserve, a UNESCO, it is well known for tree climbing lions and the soda ash lake also attracts thousands of pelicans pink flamingos and it has the largest elephant population.

Tarangire National Park

Ranked as the 6th largest National Park in Tanzania, most popular for its large elephant herds and also its mini wildlife migration during the dry season (Jun-Nov). The Tarangire River remains the only source of water hence attracting large number of animals, such as lions.

Serengeti National Park

A world Heritage Site with over 2 million ungulates, 4,000 lions, 1,000 leopards, 550 cheetahs and 500 bird species inhabited in an area close to 15,000 square kilometers. It is also home to the animal migration where many will cross the crocodile infested Grumeti River.

Kilimanjaro

Highest point in Africa and home to the famous Mount Kilimanjaro. Also its unique volcanic formation with 3 cones, Kibo, Mawenzi and Shira.

Ngorongoro

Located in Northern Tanzania, its home to the volcanic Ngorongoro Crater and the famous Big 5. Huge herds of wildebeests and zebras traverse its plains during their annual migration.

Nairobi

Kenya's capital and the largest city, renowned for its coffee culture. It is the only city in the world with a national park.
