02 Tokyo - Kawagoe - Nikko

Meals on Board, Dinner

Upon arrival in Tokyo, start your trip with a Tohoku tour!

Kawagoe Edomachi: Famous for its kurazukuri (clay-walled warehouse) buildings, traditional shops, and bell tower.

Toki no Kane bell tower: It is a bell tower that dates back to the Edo period and is located in the heart of the city's historical district.

Kawagoe Kitain Temple: It is known for its association with the Tokugawa clan and its beautiful architecture.

Hikawa Shrine: It is the headquarter of Hikawa Shrine located in various parts of Musashi Province (Tokyo and Saitama Prefecture), centered in Adachi County.

Kashiya Yokocho: Also call Penny Candy Alley, a stone paved streets embedded with colorful glass that is lined with 22 traditional style Japanese candy shops. The Candy Alley is a wonderful place for trying traditional Japanese sweets, while experiencing a nostalgic atmosphere from past decades.

Ichiban-gai Shōtengai: Offers not just shopping opportunities but also a chance to immerse yourself in the local culture and taste the local cuisine.

Accommodation: Kinugawa Plaza hotel or similar (Onsen Hot Spring)

Kawagoe Edomachi

03 Nikko - Inawashiro

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Nikko Toshogu: Nikko Toshogu is part of the Shrines and Temples of Nikko UNESCO World Heritage Site, designated in 1999 for its cultural and historical significance. Also particularly the legacy of the Tokugawa Shogunate.

Ouchijuku: During the Edo period (1603-1867) Ouchi-juku was a post town that served travelers. Many of the buildings have been preserved from this time, providing visitors with an authentic time-travel experience to one of Japan's most culturally rich periods.

Accommodation: HotelListel Inawashiro or similar (Onsen Hot Spring)

Ouchijuku

04 Inawashiro - Yamagata

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Aizu-Wakamatsu Tsuruga Castle: Formerly the seat of power for the entire region, this mighty fortress was destroyed in the concluding conflict of the Boshin War. Unlike many other structures that were torn down by imperial decree at the start of the Meiji period (1868–1912), Tsuruga Castle went out in a blaze of glory. The stronghold was later remade in the 1960's as a concrete reconstruction.

Kitakata Ramen Museum: Kitakata ramen is a type of ramen originating from Kitakata city known for its distinctive features, such as flat, curly noodles and a soy sauce-based broth. The museum showcases the history and development of Kitakata ramen, highlighting its cultural significance in the region.

Zao (Ropeway included): Visiting Zao Onsen during the winter season to witness the natural beauty of the Snow Monsters. Take the cable car that provides access to the higher elevations of the ski resort.

Accommodation: Tendo Onsen Hotel or similar (Onsen Hot Spring)

05 Yamagata - Matsushima - Sendai

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Ginzan onsen street: The town is home to wooden hot spring inns lining each side of the Ginzan River and resonates with nostalgic beauty when illuminated at night by gas street lamps. The view reminds visitors of scenes from the famous film "Spirited Away" by Hayao Miyazaki.

Shirakami waterfall: The "Silver Waterfall" with a height difference of 22 meters is also a tourist attraction that cannot be missed. The waterfall is divided into two in the middle, and you can enjoy the majestic waterfall with splashing water and the trickling waterfall.

Warashi-yu Foot bath: Warashi-yu foot bath is located along the Ginzan River at the entrance to the hot spring area, and visitors can soak their feet. The water, which is said to be effective against neuralgia, rheumatism, and skin diseases, flows directly from a spring.

Matsushima Bay Cruise: The best way to explore the incredible natural scenery of Matsushima Bay is from the water! Matsushima has long been celebrated as one of the Nihon Sankei (Three Views of Japan), with more than two hundred pine-covered islands dotting its picturesque bay.

Accommodation: Sendai Metropolitan Hotel or similar
